

MIDAS METERING SERVICES LTD.

METERING INSTALLATION AND DATA ACQUISITION SERVICES

MV-90[®] Installation, Configuration & Integration Services

Background: Itron's MV-90[®] is the world's leading software system for the collection, validation and editing of interval, register and event data from solid-state metering and data logging devices. It is currently used by over 400 utilities around the world. MIDAS uses MV-90[®] as one component of its own data management system and has provided several utilities with the MV-90[®] installation, configuration and integration consulting services.

Description: MIDAS offers complete installation, configuration and integration services of the MV-90[®] software system to help clients realize the full potential of their investment.

Services: System Design

- Design and development of MV-90[®] system architectures.
- Changes or additions to existing MV-90[®] systems.

System Installation

- Installation and configuration of MV-90[®] software.
- Meter master file construction and commissioning.

System Programming And Configuration

- Meter specific master file configuration.
- Implementation of automated processing features.
- Integration into existing systems.

System Administration And Maintenance

- MV-90[®] software upgrade management.

Pricing: Please contact us directly for specific pricing details.